IGNOU 2801 is one of the earliest centers of the IGNOU family.

It began its operation in the year 1985 and still catering services to large number of students covering a wide area of South Bengal.

It is situated in a house known as "ISWAR CHANDRA PATHABHAVAN" - a lousy structure of an old Zamindari family in Bengal. Declared as a HRITAGE SITE, this particular center really stands apart from others.

Located very near to the busy Sealdah railway station, this center is surrounded by big trees offering rear greenery in the midst of din & bustle of this part of Kolkata city. Students obviously enjoy the ambience and love to stay in this arena to relish the beauty of the nature for a longer time.
